ONLINE CHILD SEX EXPLOITATION REPORT FORM

If you know about a child who is in immediate danger, risk or you require an urgent response, you must call 000 or your local police.

This form should be used for reporting concerns about inappropriate behaviour online. For example, adults who you believe are acting inappropriately with or towards a child or seeking a child for sex. These reports go directly to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

To report content found online, such as images of children that you find disturbing, please report content to the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) (www.acma.gov.au).

In order to proceed you must agree to the content of the report being shared with other law enforcement agencies.

During the reporting process, you will be required to provide your name, age and contact details. If you would prefer not to give us your details, you can find information about reporting anonymously to Crimestoppers at www.crimestoppers.com.au or by calling the toll free number 1800 333 000.

Crimestoppers will accept information of any crime and you will be directed to local State or Territory police.

Throughout the reporting process * denotes a required field.

Please complete the form and send to:
