AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE

AIPM

Australian Institute of Police Management

Executive Director

Administered by the AFP, the Australian Institute of Police Management (AIPM) is an educational organisation with an extensive history in educating public safety leaders. The AIPM is recognised as a world leader in the development and delivery of education and development for executives and organisations involved in the innovative provision of policing, law enforcement, security, emergency services, and related professions.

The AFP is seeking to appoint an Executive Director for the AIPM who will be responsible for the effective leadership and management of the Institute and ensuring all programs meet the highest standards of executive education.

Reporting to the AFP Executive, the Executive Director will develop key partnerships with clients, drive sustainable change, provide strategic advice to the AIPM board, and ensure the maintenance of the Institute's global reputation.

As Executive Director of the AIPM, you will set strategic corporate direction, have astute judgement, and a strong focus on results. You will also have the ability to solve complex issues and build organisational capability. You will be committed to excellence and innovation, and have a strong record of achievement through the leadership of people and the management of resources.

With strong commercial acumen and comprehensive knowledge of the public safety environment and culture, you will ensure business area outputs are achieved in accordance with the AIPM's governance frameworks. You will be a thought leader on police leadership and executive development, and ensure the continued growth and debate of these issues with an appetite and enthusiasm for learning.

The successful candidate must be an Australian citizen and be able to obtain and maintain a security clearance at the NV2 level. You will have executive education and management experience, as well as extensive experience in a similar learning environment and relevant tertiary qualifications. This role is based in Sydney.
