Note: This table includes matters reported before 1 July 2017 and finalised during 2017–18.
